

My husband and I value our time at home after working long hours. Multiple telemarketer calls at dinner time and through out the evening is very disruptive and unwanted. Please do what ever possible to protect people against these predators. Thank you